Client understands that Attorney's standard base fee must be paid up front before the client's case is filed, and that it covers the following services: preparation of the petition, schedules and statement of affairs; representation of Client at the Meeting of Creditors under 11 U.S.C. §341; preparation of reaffirmation and redemption agreements; avoidance of liens; such contacts or communications with my trustee as are normal in a simple consumer bankruptcy; such motions, notices, responses, etc., as are normal in a simple consumer bankruptcy; and opposing any action by creditors not constituting an adversary proceeding.

If any additional services are required, such as the defending of an adversary proceeding on a claim, I agree to pay, in addition to the above base fee, a reasonable sum for any such service which will be agreed upon by separate written agreement, as well as all of my attorney's expenses.

The frequency and amount of periodic payments are contained on the schedule signed by Client at the initial conference (or as attached hereto) titled "Initial Fee Agreement – Payment Schedule", which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated in this agreement as if the same were fully set forth. Client understands and acknowledges that Client will also be responsible for a compound finance charge of 1.5% per month (APR 18%) added on the 20th day of each month for any delinquency, as well as for a fee in the maximum amount legally allowed which will be charged for each returned check, if any. That amount, at the present time, is $30.00 and will increase as the legal, maximum, allowable amount increases. Client agrees that if payments are not made as outlined above, Attorney may immediately close client's file, in which case no further action needs to be taken or services rendered by Attorney and said file shall be closed. The total upfront sum shall be applied as paid first to Attorney's fees, secondly to other costs, and lastly to the court filing fees. The court costs shall be returned to the client with all other fees paid nonrefundable to Attorney.

Client agrees not to give out Attorney's name, telephone number, or address prior to the filing date of Client's case, unless Client has paid Attorney at least $400.00.

Client agrees to cooperate with Attorney and to promptly supply information that attorney deems necessary to properly file Client's case. Client agrees to be truthful with both the Bankruptcy Court and the attorney and to keep the attorney properly informed of changes in Client's address, telephone number, and email address. Client acknowledges that neither the attorney, nor the attorney's staff has made any promises or guarantees about the outcome of Client's case or the client's ability to obtain future credit. Client understands that Client's case will not be filed until all up front monies are paid pursuant to this authorization/fee contract, the credit counseling certificate is obtained, and all necessary documents are signed.

The attorney reserves the right to withdrawal from this matter (i) if the client fails to honor this agreement, (ii) for any just reason as permitted or required under the North Carolina State Bar's Rules of Professional Conduct, (iii) as permitted by the rules of courts of the State of North Carolina and/or the Bankruptcy Court. Notification of withdrawal shall be made in writing to the client. Attorney shall have an automatic right to withdraw from this matter if a check delivered by the client to the attorney is returned for insufficient funds.

Attorney shall scan for retention any of the books, papers, and/or records related to the representation of the client and return or make available all original copies to the client.

READ CAREFULLY: Client understands that no paralegal, legal assistant, secretary, or other non-lawyer working at the law offices of Bevin W. Wall, Attorney at Law, has the authority (i) to give legal advice, (ii) to recommend that client should or should not file for the protection of bankruptcy, (iii) to recommend that client file under one bankruptcy chapter rather than another chapter, to the extent that such advice or recommendation would involve the exercise of independent legal judgment. Client acknowledges that no one employed by or affiliated with the law offices of Bevin W. Wall, Attorney at Law, other than an attorney, has given such advice or made any such recommendation to the client.

Client understands that if client is behind in payments on a car, mobile home, furniture loan, lease or other secured debt, the bankruptcy laws do not stop a creditor from repossessing or otherwise taking such property until such time as the client's case is actually filed with the Bankruptcy Court. Similarly, Client understands that foreclosure on a home or a piece of land cannot be stopped until the client's case is filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

Client will be charged: (i) a processing fee of $30.00 for any check in which payment has been refused by the payor bank because of insufficient funds or because the drawer did not have an account at that bank, and (ii) any service charges imposed on the attorney by a bank or depository for processing the dishonored check, pursuant to the provisions of N.C.G.S. section 6-21.3 and 25-3-506.

Client acknowledges that Client has read and understands all the terms of this Client Authorization For Legal Services/Bankruptcy Fee Contract. Client also acknowledges having received a copy of this document which consists of 3 pages. THIS CONTRACT HAS BEEN EXECUTED WITHIN 5 DAYS OF THE PROVISION OF SERVICES TO CLIENT.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA

NOTICE TO INDIVIDUAL CONSUMER DEBTOR UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case. You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $39 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $299)

1. Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

2. Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

3. The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

4. Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $274)

1. Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

3. After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1000 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $1039)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $39 administrative fee: Total fee $239)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.
